2. "The Committee has suggested the reduction from Rs.100 to Rs.50 each, of the allowances now drawn by the Personal Assistant to the Chief Commandant and the Accounts Assistant to the same officer. These appointments belong to the Military Department which is a non-votable head. The Finance Taxation Committee is not constitutionally competent to make any recommendations in regard to the expenditure falling under this head. 10 It does not seem desirable to reduce the allces. In any case it is not likely that the allces will be reduced in the case of the present incumbents. It is too early to consider what should be done with the next incumbents. The accts asstt is going to be a permanent man — a Mr. V. Srikantaiya — who has been appointed on the Mil. I acct, and Audit, and the pay of the Civilian asstt is likely to be fixed in the reorganisation proposals.

No action in this matter therefore seems called for for the present

15. The Personal Assistant's allowance of Rs 100/- p.m. has perhaps to be continued for the present — at any rate till the reorganization question is finally settled.

16. As regards the ~~Personal~~ Accounts Assistant, the officer who was holding it till now Mr Narasimha Char, has now been relieved, and his place has been taken for the time being by Mr H.V. Srikantiah, whose deputation to offices & posts in British India for a short period is under consideration separately×. As regards the allowance to the Accounts Assistant, it has been directed in the 9th Secy's D.O. dated 3.4.25, in connection with the appointment of Financial Assistants to Dy. Commrs & Chief Exec. Engineer, that this/the allowance should not be allowed to be brought up a month hence by any officer viz; the Military Accts Assistant, also, should get no allowance beyond what he would get in the Comptr's Office. Till Mr Srikantiah's confirmation as Asst Comptr is settled, no question of allowance to ~~him~~ arise. For the present, a communication may be sent to the Comptr that the allce of Rs 100/- drawn hitherto by Mr Narasimha Char in the post, should not-
